

TRAIN LOAD OF EQUIPMENT IS CAPTURED BY THE AMERICANS

Forms Part of Vast Stores Advancing Army Seized—Germans Now Seem Willing Prisoners—Counter Attacks On St. Mihiel Salient Failed Utterly—Increasing Weakness of German Arms is Shown.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON THE LORRAINE FRONT, Sept. 14.—By the Associated Press.—Aside from the strategic value of the reduction of the St. Mihiel salient, the operations by the Americans has netted vast numbers of prisoners and huge quantities of guns, ammunition and general stores.

The desperate efforts of the enemy to escape thru the forest near Vigneulles partially succeeded, but not so well as to detract from the brilliant result. Before the American line stretched across the edge of the wood tightened it is estimated that thousands escaped from the trap. Those who did not escape were small units rarely greater than companies and never offered to fight unless encountered by some patrol and even then their resistance was slight.

The spirit of retreat had entered that part of the German army and there were scores of instances where the men, and even officers, professed satisfaction at their capture.

Among the war materials captured was a long train of box cars containing a complete equipment of gas projectors, and this may have had a bearing on the failure of the Germans to carry out a gas attack shortly before the Americans began their operation. It is known that the Germans planned such an attack at one point but a prisoner said that the equipment was delayed and it was decided to postpone the attack.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN LORRAINE, Sept. 14.—By the Associated Press.—The enemy counter-attacked against part of the American lines Friday evening and again during the night but met with an intense and accurate artillery fire and recoiled.

The Americans took a few prisoners in these attacks. Hard fighting has taken place in the quarries northeast of Fey-en-Haye, where the Germans had placed one big gun and many machine guns in a well defended position.

Additional Austrian prisoners have been taken; native civilians said that they came in only a few days ago.

Artillery fire and gas shells were sent against certain American positions during the night but they did little damage. The Americans are organizing their newly taken positions rapidly and are pushing forward exploitation parties. Prisoners and supplies are being collected and roads are being constructed in No Man's Land. Much booty and ammunition have fallen to the Franco-American allies.

Marvel At White Bread

Prisoners and refugees alike are greatly impressed by the fact that the Americans are eating white bread regarding it as a particularly ominous sign for Germany.

Thruout the night and early today Pershing's men continued to advance and finished cleaning up the St. Mihiel salient. They cleared the forests of lurking Germans.

Prisoners make conflicting statements respecting German preparedness for an attack in this sector. Some say it was unexpected; others declare they had advance information of the hour and place of the attack. Still others expected it would take place on the fifteenth and say that the artillery had been ordered to withdraw on the night of the attack. The post's command was being moved when the attack began and therefore was caught unawares in the barrage. This apparently explains the light counter artillery fire Thursday morning.

A German prisoner officer is quoted as saying: "The Hindenburg line in its present state is untenable."

AMERICAN ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Friday, Sept. 13.—Reuter's.—Nothing could better illustrate the increasing weakness of the German arms than the ease with which the Franco-American force entrusted with the task advanced in the St. Mihiel salient. It is true the operation was admirably planned and carried out, but one rarely has witnessed anything like the ease of that first day's fighting.

There was, of course, a barrage but not a very terrific affair, as barrages go. After the barrage there was nothing very startling in the way of gun fire and the machine gun rattle produced quite an effect by only coming now and then.

All the while the Americans were going forward with the steadiness of a flood, trickling into woods on one side and passing out of them on the other, spreading about a village and overwhelming it, and breaking against a hill or a mountain and gradually working over the top. They moved like something worked by a clock, but always ahead of schedule. Rain soaked and slipping about in the mud they still went forward while back along the flood came long lines of grey blue creatures who had been swamped in its course.

Proof of Waning Man Power
Whatever way one looked there were sure to be Germans, men as fine as you could wish for or creatures so poor that their presence in the line afforded the most damning proof of German insufficiency in manpower. The mud had proved too much for many of the tanks and the rainstorms had swept the airplanes out of the sky, but still the Americans went on, with just the booming of a few big guns behind them and a melting away of the enemy in front.

There was however, plenty of fierce fighting. The Bois, (name of wood deleted) was not cleared without a struggle which for a time held back that part of the line. There had been a throwing out of mustard gas and some sharp machine gun firing before some of the surrounded villages could be left behind and the attack resumed. But even these things

WAR SUMMARY

News of Activities On Various Battle Fronts in Summarized Form By Associated Press.

Marshal Foch, pursuing his policy of giving the Germans never a minutes rest, followed up the incisive stroke of the Americans which wiped out the St. Mihiel salient in two days time by launching an offensive Saturday morning on the French front along the bend in the line around Loos.

The blow took immediate effect on the German lines pushing them back from one to two miles at points in this important sector where it is well high vital for the Germans to hold fast if they hope to retain control of any considerable part of northern France during the coming winter.

Meanwhile the process of cleaning up the St. Mihiel salient was being continued by General Pershing's troops who so far are reported to have effected the capture of more than 20,000 Germans as the result of the clean cut drive of the American first army. There were indications in the reports from the front that the American success might have done somewhat more than to straighten out the line above the former St. Mihiel Bend, for the Germans were said to be retiring near Chatillon, along a front five or six miles to the northwest of the former western lip of the salient. They were probably forced to do this in the readjustment of their line to meet the altered conditions.

With the lessening of the tension on the St. Mihiel front, interest is centered at present in the French assault on the Allette-Aisne front. General Petain's troops were here gaining ground where every yard was extremely valuable to the Germans positions along the Aisne and the Vesle to the east have been under an increasing threat for some time by the French advance on their left flank. The advance will not have to be pressed much further before a German retreat on a wide front in this sector will be compelled.

By driving in sharply in his present move, Marshal Foch probably intends to make untenable even the Chemin-des-Dames, the former German holding ground north of the Aisne. He has made marked progress already in his taking of Mont Des Singes, south of the Allette.

It is but a short distance thence to the Anizy-Ponon line, the capture of which by Petain last fall compelled the German Crown Prince to fall back from the Chemin des Dames to the Allette line to the north.

The French progress here likewise represents a renewal of the drive at the St. Gobain mass, and therefore at the citadel of Loos, which that bastion defends. Moving directly into the mass further north above the Allette, the French are reported to be progressing satisfactorily. Along the Aisne, the advance has taken the French some distance further towards the east and they were early reported to have reached Vailly on the north bank of the Aisne, pushing the Germans back from the river as they advanced.

The British front has held intact against a series of German assaults in what appears to be a fit of desperation over the inroads made in the defenses of Cambrai by Field Marshal Haig's forces in their recent progress.

The British successfully beat off several such attacks at Havincourt and Gouzeaucourt, holding their valuable positions on the high ground in this sector.

BIG CITIES BELOW

REGISTRATION ESTIMATES (By The Associated Press)

Washington, Sept. 14.—Provisional Marshal General Crowder tonight had not received complete figures from a single state on the registration Thursday of men between 18 and 45, but partial returns were received during the day from draft officials compiling the district reports. The count was complete in the District of Columbia, but the total was not announced.

Reports coming to the provost marshal general today from the more populous centers of the country led members of his staff here to revise downward their estimate yesterday that the total number of men registered might reach 14,000,000.

Returns from some New York districts indicated that the enrollment there might only produce 36 per cent of the estimate before registration day and it also was said that Chicago, Detroit, and other large cities were running slightly below the expected totals.

DRAFT EVADERS FIGHT OFFICERS; ONE MAN KILLED

Six Others Wounded In Wisconsin Riot

(By The Associated Press)
EAU CLAIRE, Wis., Sept. 14.—One man was killed and six were wounded tonight near Owen in a fight between members of the Home Guard and farmers on one side and two alleged draft evaders. Hundreds of shots were exchanged. The house of the alleged draft evaders was surrounded by guards.

The dead:
Harry Jensen, agent for the Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste. Marie railway at Owen, shot thru the heart.

Among the injured, all of whom are severely wounded, are:
Emil Lano, Owen, shot thru leg and shoulder.

Angus Page, Owen, shot leg.
Frank White, shot thru leg.
Matt Matteson, Owen, shot thru arm.

Story of Trouble.

The fight grew out of the attempt of officers to arrest Frank Krueger, son of Mrs. Louise Krueger, who lives on a farm at Withy, near Owen, late today. On being accosted by the officers, Krueger, it is alleged, pulled a gun and started to shoot as he backed into his home. The officers immediately withdrew and 100 home guardsmen and several posses of citizens were called and surrounded the house.

As the guards and officers advanced toward the house, shots were fired from the Krueger residence and several of the men fell wounded.

Jensen, who went with the first party to the home, received a bullet through the heart and died instantly. His body was removed to a local undertaking parlor.

At midnight the alleged draft evader was still holding the officers at bay and indications were that it would be an all night siege.

Besides Frank, Mrs. Krueger and three other sons are believed to be in the house. Whether any of them have been wounded or killed it not known.

ENLISTMENTS FOR NAVY RE-OPENED

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—

Volunteer enlistment or induction into the navy with special qualifications will be re-opened under an agreement reached today between Secretary Daniels and Provost Marshal General Crowder regarding the procedure by which the navy will secure its personnel under the new draft law.

It is understood the plan provides that the navy shall select the men needed for its special branches, the remainder to come through the regular draft process.

Navy recruiting stations will be re-opened to co-operate with local boards in securing skilled men and to serve as mobilization centers for drafted men allotted to the navy.

BOY SCOUTS AND MILITIA SERVE CINCINNATI

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 14.—Altho 24 hours have passed since the strike of the Cincinnati policemen for higher wages began, only about one hundred reported for duty today and the protection of the city is being maintained thru the efforts of home guards and boy scouts. The latter, while mainly employed as traffic "officers", assisted in keeping the peace.

This afternoon Mayor Galvin offered to reinstate the policemen without fines or suspension and promised that the incident so far as they were concerned would be closed, but insisted that the men suspended yesterday charged with conduct unbecoming to officers and disrespect to a superior, must stand trial. This latter stipulation, however, has not been accepted, consequently there is a deadlock.

The president's message said: "Please accept my warmest congratulations on the brilliant achievements of the army under your command. The boys have done what we expected of them, and done it in the way we most admire."

"We are deeply proud of them and of their chief. Please convey to all concerned my grateful and affectionate thanks."

BANDITS ATTEMPT TO HOLD UP MINE OFFICE

MADE UNSUCCESSFUL ATTEMPT TO GET BIG PAY-ROLL FUND.

Peoria and Tazewell County Officers Secure Country For Hold-up Men—Got No Money But Wounded Men Who Frustrated Robbery Plan.

Peoria, Ill., Sept. 14.—Police and sheriffs' posses of Peoria and Tazewell counties tonight were scouring the surrounding country in a search for three automobile bandits who late this afternoon attempted to rob mine officials of the Verdun Mining Company, Groveland Mining company, and who shot and seriously wounded Detective E. J. Gustine of Peoria, and Walter Off, manager of the company.

The attempted holdup was staged on a secluded part of the road near the Groveland mine about eight miles south of here. Detective Gustine and Off, were on the way to the mine in an automobile with the payroll and halted when they found several roadblocks placed across the road.

Detective Gustine alighted from the automobile and just as he attempted to remove the ties there was a shot from the bushes nearby and he fell with several gunshot wounds in his body. Off jumped from car and as he did so other shots were fired from the brush along the roadside. One shot took effect in Off's eye and he probably will lose it.

Off succeeded in getting away and hastened to the mine office a half mile away and notified the police here.

Apparently frightened, after the shooting, the robbers fled, making no attempt to secure the satchel of money left unguarded in the coal company automobile.

The police at once rushed two automobiles filled with officers to the scene and Sheriff Wilson of Pekin also hurried men to the mine.

On the way to the scene of the attempted holdup the Peoria police halted three men in an automobile but allowed them to go. It was believed tonight that these three men were the bandits.

Detective Gustine and Off were hurried to a local hospital. The Groveland company tonight offered a reward of $1,000 for the arrest and conviction of the robbers.

The captain, according to El Mundo, made a report in writing of the encounter, which was signed by the passengers.

PERSHING WILL CONTINUE WITH BIG OFFENSIVE

St. Mihiel Advance Gives Base for Further Operations

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—General March, chief of staff, hinted today at a continued offensive by General Pershing on the St. Mihiel Front. At his weekly conference with newspaper correspondents he said "elimination of the salient furnished a better base for further offensive operations." He commented also on the value in a military sense of the communication line restored by the American success. No official reports had come, however, to show the course General Pershing is following.

The salient, however, the two wings of his attack formed a junction and closed the mouth of the St. Mihiel trap on the enemy. Berlin reported officially that Pershing's men were feeling their way toward "our new lines" east of Combre and northwest of Thiaucourt. Just what time this referred to was not clear. It appeared probable tonight, however, that the line of defense upon which the Germans have fixed will be found well to the north and east of the positions held by Pershing's outposts at last authentic reports. It is not believed here, however, that the enemy will yield control of the Briey Iron Fields without a stubborn fight, and Pershing is advancing towards that important region.

Discussing the American operations of the last two days General March said:

"Sharps Blows Brought Result. The old St. Mihiel salient was the first one that was established along the Western Front in September, 1914 and is the last one to go. The narrowest and most angular of all salients, projecting 12 miles into the French line and having important military bearing because it is across the railway of the Meuse valley, cutting off Verdun from Commercy and Toul and leaving only one supply line, the one that goes out to the west toward Rheims. This salient was cut off by the American army in less than two days parts of Thursday and Friday, by quick, sharp blows on both flanks."

"On the south flank our troops advanced along a ten mile front between Xivray and Fey-en-Haye, up thru the undulating plain of the Woivre. On the west flank on an eight mile front, they advanced across the heights of the Meuse, a ridge which is six miles wide, and broken by deep branching ravines. By the evening of the first day, the south flank had been driven in five miles and the north flank three miles. By evening of the second (Friday) the salient had been wiped out."

Important Results. "The removal of the salient shortens the line 22 miles, restores rail communication between Verdun and St. Mihiel and Toul and gives very much better base for future offensive operations than existed before this drive began."

"All reports from the fighting sections in France indicate the same high spirit, the lack of pessimism, which has always characterized our troops in France and every one gets into the swing of it the minute he gets there. The quickness and rapidity with which they handled the fight at St. Mihiel is attributed not only to the fine staff work which brought it off but the individual soldier himself. It is hot stuff."

ILLINOIS REGISTERS NEARLY A MILLION

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 14.—Reports from about two thirds of the exemption boards in Illinois, received at the office of Adjutant General Dickson here, indicate that the registration Thursday of men between 18 and 45 years for military service will approximate the estimate of 9,173,334 fixed by the provost marshal general.

Enrollment of men in Chicago, it was declared, apparently was under the forecast, on the basis of present returns. This deficiency is overcome, however, it was said, by a registration in counties outside of the Metropolis slightly in excess of the provost marshal's estimate.

Denver, Colo., Sept. 14.—While Denver police prepared tonight to cope with another possible outbreak of terrorism by automobile bandits who engaged the police of Colorado Springs and Denver in five gun fights yesterday afternoon and last night, killing two officers and wounding four. Superintendent Frank Adams of the state constabulary arranged a dragnet to cover the eastern half of the state and prevent the escape of the bandits who are sought in connection with the robbery on July 10th, of a Missouri, Kansas & Texas train at Koch, Kans. In Denver a guard of detectives was maintained about the house on Capitol Hill, believed to be the rendezvous of the bandits while special details were scattered thruout the city.

At police headquarters four automobile loads of policemen armed with rifles were held in readiness for any emergency.

Four Still at Large. Four of the alleged bandits still are believed to be at liberty in the vicinity of Denver. Seven persons, four men and three women are in custody as a result of last night's clashes with the police. They are:

Eva De Morris, sister of Lewis, arrested last night in a raid of a house on Capitol Hill, Denver.

Lloyd Dale, arrested today at Sedalia.

Mrs. Babb, mother of Lewis, arrested with Babb.

Mrs. Frank Lewis, arrested with the Babb.

Dale, according to the police, was released this summer from the Missouri penitentiary, where he was known under the name of Erdway.

At police headquarters tonight it was stated that all of the men under arrest denied any knowledge of the Kansas train robbery and of the killing of Chief of Detectives John Rowan of Colorado Springs yesterday.

Frank Lewis who is in jail at Pueblo, made a similar denial, it was announced.

Wanted for Bank Robbery.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 14.—Roy Sherrill and Frank Lewis, the two bandits captured near Denver, Colo., after a revolver fight with policemen, are declared by Jerry Kinney, chief of detectives of the local police department, to be two of the men who robbed the South Side State Bank here on August 8 and escaped with $18,338 in cash.

The bandits entered the bank during the noon hour, severely beat two men and at the point of revolvers held off the bank employees while they gathered up the money and escaped in an automobile.

BONDS WILL GROW MORE VALUABLE

After the battle and victory of Waterloo English bonds went up in value 50 per cent. What do you think American bonds will do when this war ends?

Before the war a government bond for $100, bearing 4 1/2 per cent interest, could have been sold any day for $120 or more. At this moment intelligent men of great wealth are paying $105 for a $100 government bond bearing only 3 1/2 per cent interest, because that particular bond happens to be free of the heavy war income tax. Soon, with the war in end, and far above par will rise the price of government bonds bearing 4 1/2 per cent interest. Rippling Rhymes By Walt Mason

PLENTY OF WORK. The lazy man has lots of trouble; he can't dodge labor worth a cent; no odds how he may twist and double, some job will track him to his tent. Where is the guy who used to mutter, "I can't get work, how'd I try; I'd like to earn my bread and butter, but 'Nothing doing' is the cry." He used to come, with gall immortal, and hand that kind of tale to you; you did not shoo him from your portal, because his story might be true. You handed him a pie or muffin, and said, "Poor man, your fate is dire," and watched him while he sat there stuffing his innards, like a house afire. But now if some one comes a-spelling of lack of work, and fakes like those, you bump his head against the ceiling and flood him with the garden hose. You know at once that he is faking, you laugh to scorn his plaintive yelp, employers everywhere are breaking their wishes rustling round for help. The lazy man has no excuse with which to fool the kindly guy; the stress of war has cooked his gooses, and he must go to work or die.

METHODISTS MEET AT QUINCY THIS WEEK

Annual Conference Will Begin Tuesday Night —Rev. C. F. McKown Writes About Program.

Writing in the Springfield Journal, Rev. C. F. McKown gives the following interesting statement with reference to the coming conference of the Methodist church to be held in Quincy this week. Rev. Mr. McKown now ranks as one of the best known ministers in the conference. The Jacksonville ministers are expecting to leave Tuesday afternoon for Quincy.

The ninety-fifth session of the Illinois conference of the Methodist Episcopal church will convene at the Vermont Street church, Quincy, September 15, Bishop Leete presiding. F. A. McCarty pastor host, and A. S. Flanagan, superintendent district.

It is fifteen years since the conference met in Quincy, at which time Bishop Fowler presided. This is Bishop Leete's first assignment to the presidency of the conference. The guest of honor will be the guest of President D. L. Musselman of the Gem City Business college, a leader among our laity and who graciously places his main office in the college building, situated near the church, at the service of the bishop and his cabinet.

Program To Be Given. In the splendid program being arranged for the week the more conspicuous items are: Open air meetings from the band stand in Washington park in the center business district in charge of Conference Evangelist E. K. Towle. The 4 o'clock evangelistic hour will be in charge of that veteran, Dr. Charles M. Boswell of Philadelphia, for many consecutive years has had charge of a like service in his own conference. Dr. H. V. Holt will speak at the league anniversary Tuesday night. The Historical society holds its annual meeting Wednesday afternoon, at which time J. A. Kuntz, who was received at the session held in Quincy just fifty years ago, will deliver a semi-centennial sermon. Dr. P. J. Maveety represents the Freedman's Aid Wednesday night. Secretary D. W. Howells is speaker at the anniversary of the general deacons board Thursday afternoon and the conference lecture by Chas. L. J. S. Dancy will be the attraction for Thursday evening.

There will be a joint session with the Layman's association at 10:30 a. m. Friday and also at night. Centenary leaders will address both these meetings. Dr. Rockwell Clancy of Indiana will give the address at the Woman's Foreign Missionary anniversary Friday afternoon.

Plan Educational Banquet. The educational banquet will occur at the Masonic temple at 5:30 p. m. Friday. This is an event which has featured largely at recent sessions, and at the coming banquet plates will be laid for four hundred and an exceptional program rendered. At the Women's Home Missionary anniversary Saturday afternoon Mrs. Dan Brummitt will speak under the theme "Kindling the Fire Under the Melting Pot," and at night, J. W. VanCleve, secretary of the commission of finance will speak for the conference chairman's board of which H. C. Gibbs is secretary for this conference.

The love feast Sunday morning will be in charge of S. H. Whitlock, the beloved veteran. Bishop Leete will preach Sunday morning and in the afternoon, A. L. Casley delivers the missionary sermon, followed by ordination services. The anniversary of the board of Sunday schools will be held Sunday evening, addressed by Dr. Mathew Tenney. W. S. Phillips will again lead the conference singing. Bishop Leete will open each session with a "Parliament of Methods" and close each session with a devotional address. On Wednesday evening the conference will be entertained at the Chaddock Inn, a picnic supper by the Chaddock aid. W. T. Beadles, chaplain of the Soldiers' and Sailors' home, extends courtesies and invites visting of his great and interesting plant.

Altogether it is a full program, replete with good things—besides the main item of all, the business sessions.

Honor Roll Given. The memorial service, not indicated above, has honor of the first thing after the opening of the conference proper, Wednesday morning, at which hour G. E. Scrimger gives the address of tribute, W. A. Smith, presiding.

The roll of the deceased so far as reported, is: Bros. W. C. Calhoun, S. W. Balsh, W. N. Tobie and J. W. Henninger, and Mesdames E. D. Wilkin, C. E. Taylor, M. W. Everhart, T. M. Carter, M. P. Collier, Anderson Orr and E. O. Clark.

The Year's Work. Conditions created by the war have common mention by all our leaders, and specific recitals would, no, be news in any quarter for all sections of our land are alike affected. Leaders, pastors and churches everywhere face new and trying problems. The constituency of the old Illinois conference is striving to meet these emergencies and developments, and at the same time complete, in some adequate measure at least, the tasks being carried forward when the war schedule came to hand—the educational enterprises, the Wesleyan foundation, conference claimants, etc. The olden formula "all claims met" shouted by the brethren' year would mean war claims included and that these have been met first and in full. The voice of a full and devoted patriotism rings full and clear in Illinois, the state which this year midst the rush and push of many things celebrates its centennial year in wonderful pageants, in every feature of whose program state and national and world patriotism is exalted.

War conditions and influence give coloring, therefore, to every-thing and affect more or less the church reports.

Be sure to see the mirror hat at L. C. & R. E. Henry's millinery store.

IMPORTANT BUSINESS DEAL

Howard Zahn Takes the Agency for the International Harvester Company.

Howard Zahn, the energetic automobile dealer, has closed a deal with Arba Resenbaugh, district representative of the International Harvester Co., by which he becomes agent in Morgan and the north half of Scott Counties for the well known goods of the above establishment. The McCormick and Deering implements will be handled and his line in general will include reapers, mowers, drills, harrows, cultivators, traction plows, wagons and in short a general assortment of the goods a farmer needs.

The fact that the sale of automobiles may be sensibly curtailed or even stopped as far as pleasure cars are concerned, has led Mr. Zahn to take this step as he has an admirably arranged structure and a good stand for the purpose.

Mr. Zahn has been in Jacksonville but a comparatively few years but has well demonstrated his business ability and integrity and his friends will be glad that he has taken on this additional line of business.

WE HAVE INVOICES FOR PLAID SKIRTS, MORE SUITS, MORE COATS, MORE BLOUSES AND MORE MILLINERY, SO ADVISE TO BE PATIENT AND SEE THESE GOODS BEFORE PURCHASING. J. HERMAN.

BURGOO PICNIC AT NICHOLS PARK

Twelve Hundred, Mostly Children, Enjoyed Burgoo Soup and Program.

The person who likes to see happy children could certainly have been accommodated at the burgoo picnic at Nichols park yesterday had he been present. For weeks and even months the little folks have been anticipating the event and were ready when the day came to enjoy it.

The attendance this year was the largest yet, 1200 tickets having been issued and doubtless practically all were used. The street car service was admirable and handled without a flaw or a fault. At nine the children and mothers began to gather at the South Main street starting place and from that till ten load after load of merry, noisy, good natured youngsters were borne rapidly to Nichols park where the day was given up to eating and pleasure. Unfortunately rain and wind that followed made it impracticable to have the athletic games intended and hindered the boat riding somewhat but that dampened the spirits of the children but little.

Of course all eyes were turned toward the huge cauldrons of delicious soup watched so carefully by Uncle Isaac Watson and seasoned in his inimitable manner. He pronounced it all right and then business began and the way that soup disappeared was a caution. Time and again the remark was made, "Where do they put it?" But put it they did and to good purpose. All the children could possibly hold used up a trifle more than half the supply and all cried "enough" and went to play. About one the attack on the kettles was resumed and continued till the supply was exhausted and 1200 people had been fed twice.

A very pleasing incident of the day was a delegation from the State School for the Blind, invited to come and participate in the feast and festivities of the day which they did much to their own delight and the pleasure of the management. Mr. Watson had enough compliments to turn the head of any man less modest than himself but he bore his honors meekly though every one was saying nice things to him about the excellent quality of the soup.

The Boy Scouts were on hand and helped manfully in serving which was no small task. As the afternoon wore away the merry-makers boarded the returning street cars and by nightfall the place was deserted save by Mr. Schaefer, the faithful superintendent, and his custodian, Mr. McCarty.

The management desires to tender sincere thanks to all persons who in any way helped make the day the great success it was.

Class Enjoyed Picnic.

Members of Mrs. Harry Brady's
Sunday school class at State Street church enjoyed an all day picnic
Saturday at the home of the teacher. It had been the intention to have the picnic at Gravel Springs but unfavorable weather conditions prevented this. At the noon hour a bountiful luncheon was served and it is needless to say that the boys greatly enjoyed this feature of the day. Those present were Farrell Crabtree, Kenneth Dankin, Ernest Olds, Herbert Hogan and Delmar Fritts.

Reception at Woman's College.

night by President and Mrs. Har-

Margaret Taylor, newly elected dean of the college. The reception was especially to give the trustees and a few friends of the college opportunity to meet Mr.
and Mrs. Nyman and Miss Taylor. The pleasure of the evening was greatly increased by the delightful musical program. Miss Lazelle sang a group of songs with Miss Clara Moore giving violin obligato. This group included Ave Maria by Gounod, the Solo Song from Romeo and Juliet and Quickenbaur Fairy, Old English. Then Miss Moore played Liebesfreud by Kreisler and "Violet" by Mozart. Mrs. Har-mann gave a group of Chinese songs, and "In Flanders Fields
the Poppies Grow," by Lieut.

together the evening was one of very special pleasure.

Picnic Dinner at Park.

A picnic dinner was enjoyed at Nichols Park Saturday by a score of Boy Scouts under the leadership of Prof. T. P. Carter and Harry Walker. It had been their intention to give an athletic exhibition in the afternoon for the children in attendance at the annual burgoon given by Mr. Nichols, but the inclement weather prevented the carrying out of this plan.

House Party.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Waltman gave a house party at their home
east of city in honor of their son, Roy McPherson, who is soon to leave for service. People from

BIG AIRPLANE CENTER PRESENTS BUSY SCENE

Mammoth Air Service Production Center Located at Issoudun, France, Has Daily Capacity of Fifty Airplanes—Are Equipped With Latest Devices for Going into Combat.

Americans in France, No. 11. Romorantin, Central France, Sept.—Correspondence of The Associated Press—Liberty airplanes were darting across the sky, other Liberties were drawn up in battalions across the big plain, and still other Liberties were puffing and struggling at their anchor tests, as The Associated Press correspondent arrived at this center of airplane production for the American fighting army. The nearby towns of Issoudun is the great center for American aviators.

Crowds of soldiers and workmen had gathered to see one of the fighting Liberties completely equipped with bombing machines, wireless outfit, all its guns, and every last device for going into combat. There had been other Liberties turned out, scores and hundreds of them now moving in a steady stream. In this and others which had preceded, the last step had been taken to give them their final equipment for actual fighting.

A Hundred Shots a Minute.

The big machine had a spread of wings 42 feet across, and like all the others was of gay cloud-color seen from below, the above the color changed to green and merged into the green fields. Ahead pointed the machine gun operated by the pilot, with synchronizing device by which a hundred shots a minute flew between the arms of the spinning propeller. Further back, in the observer's nests, two more machine guns had a sweep of both broadsides and upward and rearward. There was no angle they could not reach, and even the Gotha trick of shooting straight down through a floor tunnel was more than matched the details of how this is done cannot of course be given. It is sufficient to say that this new type, long and anxiously awaited and now a reality, armed for combat was as formidable as any car ever produced, and in the judgment of these experts was far more formidable than any of them.

Climbing into the cockpit seat there was an opportunity to see the workings of this big car—the pioneer of the fighting squadrons soon to come. The powerful motor with all its pistons jumping was just ahead with two long exhausts sweeping back forward the tail. Within the seat were straps to hold the pilot in a head-long flight, and all the delicacy of mechanism one sees in an automobile—speed indicator, gas meter, oil pressure, throttles, switches—and much more besides. Lights for signaling, height meter and compass and fire extinguishers to fight a blaze.

A Wonderful Mechanism.

"This is the joy-stick," said X as he swung the lever controlling the tail and ailerons for vertical movement. And he pointed out that the foot rudder, which controls the horizontal movement, worked on the same principle as the bob-sled.

"Truly it is a wonder," he said, fondling the mechanism. "I know them all—English, French, Italian—and there is nothing like this for power and speed. Why?"

And then he gave an instance of what had been accomplished in a straight rise from the ground, which constitutes a record far exceeding anything before. This was made in one of the Liberties recently turned out here. It was not regarded as one of the best of the machines, and the workmen even dubbed it "False Alarm."

But it soon proved its rights. It was sent to one of the training fields, and on one of its first ascents it shot up straight from the ground to the height of 20,400 feet in 35 1/2 minutes.

The Record for Speed.

"It is the fastest time a human being has ever gone up," said the Captain, "and it gives an idea of what is ahead when these squadrons are in line."

If details could be given on the number of planes and the squadrons equipping for the battle line it would heart those who have grown heart sick with waiting and charges and investigations, and would let them know the day of real accomplishment was at hand in the thick of the fighting. Without giving numbers, it can be said that we saw these machines crowding a vast workshop in such arrays that their wings touched and covering much more than the area of a city block. They are not piece meal cars, but all ready to go forward. They have been passing by the score daily into the hands of the aviators, and squadron after squadron was being made ready for the front lines in combat formation over the flying fields of Issoudun. This was no longer a vague promise of the remote future, it was at hand and he saw these machines in vast number arming and starting for the battlefront.

The testing of the engines gave an idea of the tremendous power of the new cars. The cars were anchored by heavy chains and workmen gripped the long body to keep it from plunging as the propeller started and the engines gave out a long, wail. The men, gripping the chains and rigging were swept as the in a tornado. There is an awe in the power of the engine and its whirling propeller, and a danger too, which the men have learned.

Suction of Propeller Great.

The suction of the propeller while the car is on the ground is far greater than has ever been known with other cars. A workman was drawn in and killed the other day, and the great maelstrom of rushing air sucks in everything coming within ten feet of its mouth. But this is merely a detail of testing and has no bearing on the capacity of the car for flight. Like the power of the engine the propeller is much larger and heavier than in other cars.

This turning out of the new type of American Liberties is only one of the activities of this mammoth service production center located here. Behind the huge shops and ware houses, 2,700 men, 200 officers and 1,200 Chinese laborers. All the cars made in America come here in parts, to be assembled, tested, armed and all the other makes of cars are mobilized here preparatory to going into use on the flying fields and the front. There is besides the huge work of receiving the wrecked cars as they are shot down and mangled. They come here riddled with bullets, their wings torn off, which tells of a fierce contest. Such as can be made serviceable again are sent back to the field, while the wreckage of those beyond repair strewn an immense field and is a ghastly reminder of the heroic sacrifices their pilots have made.

How Machines Are Set Up.

The process of assembling the cars as they come back from America was followed through its various stages, in the six huge "bays" of the workshops, each bay having a capacity of 18 machines, or over 100 machines going forward at the same time. Nine huge boxes bring the different parts. First the fuselage or body is set up, the motors installed, the landing wheels attached, the wings and tail adjusted, the gun racks and armament prepared and soon a complete car ready for flight grows out of the scattered parts.

How many are turned out cannot be stated but it can be said that the capacity of this big airplane center working in eight hour shifts is 50 complete airplanes a day. And in these days when the mobilizing of machines follows close on the mobilizing of men, the actual production is not far from the full capacity.

MAVERICKS

The day police force almost has to talk to itself.

It may prove that some of the candidates who were defeated for nomination are better off than those who were nominated.

What's in a Name?

Miss Alice Mudd is a candidate for county superintendent in Scott county.

So far we have not heard of any of those patriots who were so anxious to fight but were outside the draft age, taking advantage of the government's offer to men between 46 and 55 years of age for certain branches of service.

Wanda Kroutzinger was arrested down in New York the other day as a German spy. Anybody with a name like that ought to be arrested on general principles.

Commenting on a recent item in The Times the Palmyra Transcript says patriotism is at high tide at Franklin and Franklin hens will soon be laying eggs with red, white and blue shells. The Palmyra editor is a year behind the times. Our hens did that in 1917, this year they have been laying eggs bearing the subscription "Buy Thrift Stamp" and last week they changed the slogan to "Fourth Liberty Loan Starts Sept. 28."—Warren Luttrell in Franklin Times.

We can't understand why the government permits good grain to be spoiled in making poor soft drinks when good beer could be made from it and fill a long felt want in many communities, including Jacksonville.

We can think of lots of things we would rather do than run for central committeeman.

There are not enough members in the fire department anymore to get up a good card game.

Speaking of the county fair. The last county fair held in Morgan county was in August, 1897. We remember it well. "Silver" Bill Riley of Chicago was making a book and selling pools that year. On the big day of the fair, which was Thursday, the sheriff went out and brought Riley and all his assistants down to the court house. We had a ticket for ten dollars and our money was in Riley's cash box which the sheriff also confiscated. We still had that ticket up to a few years ago hoping that Silver Bill might come back and we could cash it. However, he died and we tore the ticket up.

The primary brought a change in the weather anyway. —G. W. D.

SUGGESTIONS FOR FUEL CONSERVATION

Anthracite Coal Operators Committee Tells Various Ways to Save Coal and Still Keep Warm

Philadelphia, Sept. 14.—Various ways to save coal and still keep warm are pointed out by the General Committee of the Anthracite Coal Operators in a series of suggestions given out here on conservation of the fuel during the coming winter months. Briefly they are:

Start furnace and kitchen range fires as late as possible. Forget the first few cool Fall days. Raise window curtains during the day and to admit sunlight, for that is free heat. Dispense with awnings as they shut out the sun.

Weatherstrip all doors and windows and put asbestos around all furnaces, boilers and cellar pipes used for heating purposes.

Reduce the home temperature to 67 degrees. Do not wait until the mercury shows 74 degrees before closing drafts. By this time that extra amount of coal will have been consumed and wasted according to all economic rules.

Bedrooms, where windows are opened for the night of otherwise, should be shut off from heat. Use blankets and feel better in the morning.

Wear heavier clothing. This materially saves body heat. Thoroughly clean soot from pipes and boilers and do not mind doing a little work in the cellar seeing that window panes are tight and weatherstripped like the other parts of the house.

Burn oil, wood, coke and bituminous coal when possible. Use gas for cooking and heating. Gas lighting at night aids in heating the home, stores and buildings where used.

Use heavy draperies on doors and windows for interior home decorations. This aids in husbanding interior heat supply.

FROM A FORMER SWIFT & CO. EMPLOYEE.

H. B. Frost, who sometime since was assistant superintendent here for Swift and Company, is now with the U. S. troops in France. In a letter to the Military Welfare Association of Swift and Co., the soldier had the following letter. It is published in "Over There," the firms war time magazine. The Swift and Co. service flag shows 6122 stars.

The Huns are Far Beneath Us.

France, June 3, 1918. Dear Sirs:

Just two months today since I left England. I wanted to be able to tell you of having shot down a "Hun" the next time I wrote, but as it is I think I'd better write now and get the "Hun" later.

After having had all my training with the R. F. C., I was sent out here and attached to an R. N. A. S. Squadron. Considered myself rather lucky, for being part of Britain's senior service (the navy), the R. N. A. S. has always had the best of machines, equipment, etc. It was quite a change from army customs for here everything is run on a naval basis. Time is struck on the "ship's bell"—we have stewards, instead of orderlies—and live in cabins, instead of huts.

I was out here just in time to see the second push of the "Hun." In fact, the first night I was with the squadron they dropped some big shells around our aerodrome. Our actions next day are quite obvious.

Thought I had my first "Hun" when I fired on a two-seater one day. The observer fired at me for a while but I put him out of action. Thought I'd have the pilot next but no luck, for he got away in a steep dive to the east.

A few days later I very foolishly flew around alone five and six miles over the lines. Three Huns came after me. One got close enough to open fire, but they were unwilling to follow me within less than a mile or two of our lines—and I got away with what I consider a cheap lesson.

Several of us bombed a city well behind the Hun lines one noon. That evening a lot of machines were sent over to repeat. While we were away a ground mist came up, and we couldn't see a sign of the ground on our side of the lines. We simply had to take a chance and dive thru it.

The first thing I saw was the top of a tree just under one wing. I dodged a couple more and the next thing I knew I was in a house with some one holding my head.

One man killed and three in the hospital. I had gotten a blow on the left side of my face that made me a curious looking object for a few days, completely closing my left eye. At the C. C. S. (Casualty Clearing Station) to which I was taken they wanted to send me to the base hospital and thence on leave, but I asked to be allowed to return to my squadron so after keeping me five days they allowed me to return and I was flying two days later with little more than a black eye and rather a funny feeling head.

Had another crash within a week. My engine failed when I was coming back from a patrol but I succeeded in landing safely in a field. Another engine was put in and the next day I went to fly the machine back to the aerodrome. I should never have left the ground for the engine didn't sound right when I was tuning her up. Sure enough, I'd just climbed out of the field when this engine went to pieces—and this time I wasn't as lucky. Stood the machine on its nose but I got off with a few bruises, and went on a patrol a couple hours later.

Aviation is certainly the best branch of service. Of course we're busy when flying, and one doesn't last long if he doesn't keep his eyes open, but the rest of the time we live almost as comfortably as if there wasn't a war on. Days unfit for flying we have a car at our disposal to run into nearby cities.

Usually two, sometimes three "shows" a day for each pilot. The day before yesterday my flight had finished its work by noon. In the afternoon we had a car take us to the coast—had a swim, tea at a seashore resort—dinner in a nearby city, and back to comfortable quarters at night. Sometimes we're up at three o'clock to be over the lines at dawn—other times if we haven't our early show we lie abed until nine. We never have any thought of being attacked on our side of the lines, but have to go from two to five miles into Hunland to get a scrap.

At night they come over and bomb us. We don't object to their keeping us awake. Some bombs came rather close a few nights ago. We'd see the flash and then hear the "wonk" of the explosion, but a couple times when we heard the "Sio-SS" of the bomb falling thru the air we didn't wait to see the flash, but threw ourselves behind the sandbags.

At present we're very near the lines, where the Hun can shell us if he feels in the mood, tho while this push is on in the south we don't expect to be bothered. Last night he put over a half dozen big shells. We could hear them whistle thru the air—and then explode just back of us. Just sort of a "I could if I wanted to" greeting.

The Hun is licked in the air just as thoroughly as on the sea—but as on the sea so in the air, his raiders slip out, dodge our patrols and accomplish what they can before being driven down.

It's odd how height affects our safety. At 20,000 feet we seldom meet a Hun machine. At 15,000 feet we're usually able to dive on them. At 10,000 feet it's a case of watching your tail lest some Hun dive on you; and below that we seldom cross the lines. If for any reason we work low behind his lines, as soon as the scrap is over everyone gets back to our lines as quickly as possible and climbs again to a good height. On these "scout" machines, practically all our work is at two miles or more above the ground. Crossing the lines at less than that height one always feels as tho he may be caught in a trap by a swarm of Hun machines.

You can't realize how much everyone over here is looking forward to the good work of our troops. No one seems worried about the present Hun offensive. Sort of a necessary evil and last effort before he admits defeat. I think the shortest road to victory is to get a big American Army in good working order in front of the Hun, and we seem to be going that.

Sincerely,
H. B. Frost,

BILL LEGALIZING LOTTERIES REJECTED

London, Sept.—The plan which Queen Mary presented to the Red Cross and the thousands of pearls given to this society for disposition by raffle will have to be disposed of at auction as the result of the rejection by the House of Commons of the Lotteries of War Charities Bill, which would have legalized lotteries and raffles for charitable purposes.

Sir George, at the second reading of the bill, said that between one and two thousand pounds would have been realized on the pearls had they been disposed of in the manner by the bill, whereas by sale at auction they will only bring about 200,000 pounds.

CHURCH NOTICE.

Rev. W. R. Johnson of Winchester Baptist church will preach at Union Baptist church Sunday September 15th., both morning and evening. Rev. F. M. Crabtree will fill Rev. Mr. Johnson's pulpit at Winchester.

THE RED CROSS SERVICE.

So many statements have been made regarding the inefficiency of the Red Cross with regard to the service rendered to our soldiers and sailors that it seems timely for a statement to be made showing the other side of the question. In a certain news item in a local paper the statement was made that three weeks to get a sweater for a certain soldier who was home on a furlough. In the first place the man had sweat in his kit at Camp Dix and had not been able to take it home with him. But that does not matter for the lad wore our uniform and needed a sweater. The matter was reported to the Chairman for Civilian Relief and Home Service of our County Chapter at 3:15 on Friday afternoon and at 4:45 the soldier was trying on sweater. That is just about normal speed and accomplished the end sought without newspaper publicity.

The same thing is happening every day and sometimes three or four times a day as the Civilian Relief seeks to do Red Cross service. Last Tuesday a man who went away from this County received a wire saying his mother was dying. His commanding officer reported the matter to the Field Director at the Camp, the Field Director wired Chicago and Chicago wired the local Chairman for Civilian Relief asking immediate investigation of the case. Within one hour of the receipt of that wire the answer was on its way to the camp. The whole business took but a few hours. Immediate action is being taken not only with regard to men needing sweaters but a hundred and one other things that affect the morale of the men in the Camps. The Red Cross has given and does give satisfaction to both men in uniform and

The Perfect Baby Of The Future

A Simple Method That Has a Wonderful Influence upon The Future Infant.

Before the arrival of baby knowing women for over half a century have used with regularity the time-honored preparation, Mother's Friend.

Here is a most wonderful application for the abdomen and breasts. It penetrates the muscles, ligaments and tissues, rendering them pliant to readily yield to nature's demand for expansion.

By its use the anxious weeks of pregnancy are made comfortable. The usual wrenching strain, bearing-down and stretching pains are counteracted. The system is prepared for the coming event, and its use brings rest, repose and happy anticipation.

By the regular use of Mother's Friend during the period the muscles expand easier when baby arrives, and naturally the pain and danger at the crisis is less.

Mother's Friend is prepared after the formula of a noted family doctor by the Bradford Regulator Co., Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. It is for external use only, is absolutely and entirely safe and wonderfully effective. Write them for their instructive and interesting "Motherhood Book." There is a wealth of instruction and comfort to be derived in reading this little book. It is plainly written just what every woman wants to know and will be a splendid little text book. It is plainly written just what every woman wants to know and will be a splendid little text book. It is plainly written just what every woman wants to know and will be a splendid little text book. ILLEGAL TRADING IS COMMON IN GERMANY Larger Cities Obtaining One-Quarter of Necessary Foodstuffs Thru Illegal Trading is Statement of Deputy von Herzberg-Lottum—Pitiable Conditions in Austria.
New York, Sept. 14.—Starvation would be the portion probably of the larger German cities did they not increase their scanty stores thru "illegal trading." Deputy von Herzberg-Lottum said in a food debate in the Prussian lower house, according to the Berlin Tageblatt.
"The larger cities of Germany are obtaining one-quarter of their necessary stock of foodstuffs thru illegal trading—without that they would starve," the deputy asserted.
"The increasing severity of penalties heighten the risk of indulging in secret trading and raises prices," he continued.
"There are now 100,000 persons employed by the war food administration and that under the circumstances we deliver 30 eggs per year per person is really no heroic deed."
Other speakers told of pitiable conditions in Austria-Hungary.
Cunt Stolberg said:
"I have seen now in Austria
that the rich man has everything, the poor man nothing. It is a pity to see how the poor people there are suffering from hunger.
In comparison to conditions there things in our country are much better."
"In Budapest, in rich Hungary, the poor wait in line all night for the 30-gram fat ration, and then they don't receive it," Major Koch of Cassel said.
The illegal or secret trading referred to probably means that the German cities violate the law which fixes a maximum price for food and prohibits consumers from paying more than that price.
German officials have attempted to stop such violations by some cities.

CORN MARKET
FINISHES NERVOUS
CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—On favorable war news and better weather corn finished nervous 1 1/2 to 3 cents net lower with October at $1.52 1/2 to $1.52 3/4 and Nov. at $1.49 1/2 to $1.50 1/4. Oats lost 1/2 to 3/4.
The outcome in provisions varied from ten cents decline to 1 1/2 advance.
Corn developed weakness quickly and at no time displayed much power to recover. Rapid progress of the allies handicapped the bulls, aided by improved conditions for drying out the crop and increased likelihood for a complete escape from damage by frost.
Oats showed stubborn resistance to selling pressure on liberal buying for the government and the seaboard.
Higher quotations on hogs strengthened provisions. In the late dealings however, pork evidenced something of a tendency to sag.

FARM NOTES

These are busy days on Morgan county farms, as there is a great deal of work which is pressing for completion. The average of wheat will measure fully up to government request and will be larger than expected. This is partially due to the government's request for increase in acreage and other because the guaranteed price for next year makes it profitable. As one farmer recently expressed it, "There is no trouble about getting a Morgan county farmer to put in wheat this year because the price of wheat and the acreage returns during the past two years have been especially satisfactory. Why, you couldn't keep the farmers from sowing wheat this year and they are surmounting many obstacles in getting the ground into condition."

In a good many corn fields the farmers had hoped to drill in wheat but the recent heavy rains showed that the corn was "not deeply rooted and the stalks fell over in such a way as to prevent the use of a one horse drill. The only method left is to cut the corn and then disc it. This method is somewhat more expensive than the other but the results are often quite as satisfactory as wheat ground put into condition in that way is often better than when it is broken from stubble. Wheat seems to require a compact seed bed and so corn ground that has been disced is sometimes superior to the broken ground.

One difficulty in cutting corn is that of getting sufficient labor. Many farmers who have not for years cut corn themselves can be seen going to the corn fields now armed with corn knives and they are picking up workers whenever possible. Generally speaking, the corn is in better shape to cut this year than it was last, not being so heavy or "down" to such an extent. The prices for corn cutting this year are said to range from 30 to 40c per shock, which means that an experienced cutter can earn about $5 a day in the corn field.

George E. Klieck, who this year purchased the Julius Strawn estate lands of about 1,200 acres, is expecting to have 700 or 800 acres in wheat for next summer. Mr. Klieck has a number of gang plows and several tractors going, putting the land into shape. Other land that he is not able to prepare to sow for winter wheat will be sowed in spring wheat. Mr. Klieck's experience with spring wheat on his big Macon county farm has also had good results on other farms that he has owned. Since he purchased the Strawn farm as previously mentioned he has made some extensive improvements which include two dwellings with barns and sheds. He has also done a large amount of tilling.

Mr. Klieck planted this year nearly 400 acres of pop corn and while this crop is not yet fully matured it is going to make a good return. Before planting the corn Mr. Klieck had contracted the yield for shipment to a Cracker Jack factory in Iowa. Like other serious men, Mr. Klieck is turning more largely to wheat on his Macon and Morgan county farms this year for the two reasons of adding to the general sum total of wheat production and because of the difficulties in securing workers.

It is very interesting to visit Mr. Klieck's farm because he has a large force of men working and the whole farm operation plan shows that he thoroughly understands his business. He of course, operates the farm thru a foreman but gives it a great deal of personal time and attention.

ROBERT CAPPS WINS ARMY COMMISSION

Robert M. Capps has recently been commissioned a second lieutenant of ordnance, according to information just received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred T. Capps. The young man began his duties in the ordnance department at the University of Chicago and was thence sent to the ordnance school at San Antonio, Tex. Still later he was at Camp Hancock and now is located at Camp Baritan, New Jersey. Lieut. Capps in his college work made an excellent record and his advancement indicates that he is making good.

Mrs. Orval Zimmer has gone to Louisville to be near her husband, who is stationed at Camp Zachary Taylor.

EXEMPTION BOARD NEWS

The local board received a telegram Saturday stating that Provost Marshal Crowder had accepted the resignation of Dr. Carl E. Black as medical member of the Morgan county local board. While the date on which Dr. Black will leave to accompany the American mission to Greece has not been announced, it is likely that he will leave Jacksonville at a comparatively early date. He has leave of absence from the railroads for whom he has served as surgeon for a long period and during his absence Dr. D. W. Reid will take care of the work for the Burlington, Chicago & Alton and C. P. & St. L.

A call has been received by the local board for one Class One man for special service and he will be sent to Jefferson Barracks about Sept. 23 to serve as stenographer and typist. The board has not yet made selection of the man to be sent.

Because of the necessity of hurrying the compilation of the lists of the men who registered Sept. 12 the force in the local board office is now especially busy. Mrs. W. E. Spotts and Fred Davey are assisting in the work as volunteers and other workers are expected during the coming week.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE NOTES

As a result of the visit of Captain Steinbreiner, the U. S. army officer, who is to have charge of the college unit, and in view of the large registration expected several improvements are already under way at the old club house, and definite plans are being made for enlarging the quarters. It is expected that an army inspector will be here the first of the week. Several business men here generously expressed their willingness to help, if necessary, to the plans for taking care of the large number of men expected. Captain Steinbreiner telephoned on Saturday that he would probably visit the campus again on Monday. It seems likely now that the Illinois unit will be inducted into the service even before the first of October.

The opening exercises of the college will be held Wednesday morning at nine o'clock in the chapel. All friends will be welcome. Pres. Rammekamp will make a brief address and it is expected that Capt. Steinbreiner will also be present and speak regarding the Student Army Training Corps. Mrs. Genevieve Clark Wilson will sing.

Several of the older boys have already returned and taken quarters in the dorms. Among them are Francis Taylor, Henry Best and Frank Gott. Professor Whisler, who returned a few days ago is also temporarily residing in the dorm.

At the faculty meeting on Saturday afternoon, the President announced that the trustees had appointed Professor R. H. Lacey to the position of Assistant Dean for the year 1918-19. The members of the faculty have been busy during the past few days revising the schedule, arranging new courses and making other changes necessitated by the military regime which will exist "on the Hill" this year.

Office and quarters for the commandant of the Illinois unit are being arranged in the dormitory.

Indications point to a large enrollment in Whipple academy as well as in the college department.

DISCUSS COMMUNITY HIGH SCHOOL.

At a meeting held in Chapin Friday night in the interest of the proposed community high school a committee was named to prepare a petition for circulation, and to outline the high school district. The meeting was called to order by A. L. French of Chapin and those present entered enthusiastically into the plans for the proposed new school building. The committee just appointed has the authority to name new members from time to time as seems advisable, it being the intention to have all the districts or portions of districts represented on this committee. The committee as named includes, A. L. French, chairman, William Zahn, Concord; Henry Eckhoff, Baker district; R. D. Omer, Chapin; E. E. Sidles, Chapin, Thomas Stone, Hazel Dell school district and Charles E. Drake, Bethel.

CARING FOR ORPHANS

Mrs. Grace M. Badgar of the Division Visitation of Children, department of public welfare, was in Meredosia recently to take charge of five orphans. Several of the children are to be sent to the home at Lincoln and the others will be placed in good homes.

Mrs. Charles Douglas and Mrs. Charles Brown of Hillsboro are visiting at the home of Mrs. Andrew Leck.

FIVE SONS IN ARMY SERVICE

A Scott county family has the unusual record of five sons in the army service. The group above shows the five young men, who are sons of Mr. and Mrs. David Cowhick. In the center in uniform is Joe Cowhick, who is now somewhere in France, serving with Co. L of the 18th Infantry. Immediately to his right is George E. Cowhick, who was an electrician with the public service company in Winchester and who is now in Evanston in training at the radio school.

The next adjoining picture is that of Fred E. Cowhick, who held a position as an associated producer for the Rogers Co. He is now in training at Camp Shelby, near Hattiesburg, Miss., in the 149th infantry. Frank Cowhick appears next to his uniformed brother on the left. He also is at Camp Shelby, serving with the 138th field artillery. Prior to entering the army service he held a position as clerk. The fifth of the brothers is Perry Cowhick, who is at Camp Shelby and with the 113th signal corps. He has had some training in electrical work as he had been serving as lineman before he entered the army and is now in the same kind of work at the southern camp. Certainly the Cowhick family is doing its full share in the war.

WOMAN'S CLUB.

The Jacksonville Woman's club is soon to begin its twenty-second year of active work. The Federation of Women's Clubs is pledged for patriotic work during the term of the war. The only reason for the existence of any club in this period of strife is that it may give material aid during this crisis in the world's history. The programme will deal with the problems occasioned by speakers of state and national importance, who are devoting their time to studying the questions will be brought here to speak and it will be a year of instruction, so that, as the calls come to the women for material aid the problems of the times will be understood and organization more readily entered into.

Mrs. J. K. C. Pierson, treasurer, will be at the Ayers Bank Sept. 16th and 23rd, from 10:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m. to receive the annual dues.

To my many hundreds of friends thruout Morgan county I take this method of returning my sincere thanks for boosting me "over the top" last Wednesday. But Old Lookout is yet in the distance, and I expect to scale its rugged heights again, as I did many years ago, and will thank the same friends to assist me and hope to gather in many recruits to help me make the final ascent on November 5, and plant my banner on the ramparts of my opponent. In hoc signo vinces. Yours very gratefully,
J. M. Swales.

GETTING READY FOR LIBERTY LOAN CAMPAIGN

County Wide Organization is Planned—Every Citizen Will be Reminded of Duty and Opportunity to Buy Bonds—Allotment May be Placed on Volunteer Days.

A meeting of the finance committee of the state council of defense was held last night at the Ayers National Bank building on the call of the chairman, John J. Reeve, and Harry M. Capps, who is the manager of the fourth liberty loan campaign. The purpose of the conference was to talk over in a general way the plan for the coming campaign. Mr. Capps in a general way outlined the Morgan county campaign which will be of an intensive kind. Other speakers were C. A. Johnson, E. E. Crabtree, M. F. Dunlap, John E. Hall, Mrs. Charles A. Barnes, H. J. Rodger and Harry Cade.

Volunteer Days.
In Morgan county a great deal of emphasis will be laid upon volunteer days, beginning Sept. 28 the date which is to mark the opening of the campaign. It is confidently believed that with a well planned organization and widespread publicity that the Morgan county allotment of bonds can be cared for during these volunteer days. It is planned to impress upon every citizen of the county that the bonds offer the best possible investment at a good rate of interest, that patriotism demands bond purchases and furthermore the honor of Morgan county is again at stake and in order to keep up the record of past performances the full bond quota should be taken on volunteer days.

The organization will reach into every school district of the county. Record cards will be prepared this week showing the name, address, township, school district, total acreage and the assessed valuation of all land holders. There will be records also of all other citizens. These records are to be used in enabling the committee to work in an intensive way and to suggest bond allotments.

Intensive Campaign.
In advertising the coming campaign there will be meetings in every school house and church, a great mass of posters and other publicity matter will tell about the loan and the newspapers will carry the news matter and arguments to impress upon the people the necessity of the loan and what it means. So before the days for volunteer subscriptions arrive citizens can have their minds pretty well made up as to the amount of bonds for which they can subscribe. They will be urged to call upon bankers and make the subscriptions in a volunteer way without having individually been solicited.

If the full quota of the county is not cared for in this way then the township captains and their team workers will make the necessary house to house canvases and will call upon special individuals. If the whole subscription can be secured in three or four days' time then a vast amount of trouble will be saved and the good name of Morgan county will be further enhanced. When the splendid wheat crops and other crops of the early and late summer are remembered and the prospects for corn are considered it is immediately realized how very prosperous are general conditions in this county. The knowledge of these conditions leads to the belief that the floating of Morgan county's allotment for the Fourth Liberty Loan, which will probably reach a million and a half dollars, will be a comparatively easy matter.

SPECIAL DISPLAY OF GAGE HATS MONDAY. H. J. & L. M. SMITH

DEATH CAME SUDDENLY TO MRS. RALPH BRIGGS

Passed Away at 9:30 O'clock Saturday Night at Home of Her Brother—Death Caused by Hemorrhage.

Death came suddenly to Mrs. Ralph Briggs at 9:30 o'clock Saturday evening at the home of her brother, Leslie W. Harvey, 115 East College street. Hemorrhage of the lungs was the cause of death, she being stricken upon returning from town with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Leslie Harvey. Mrs. Briggs had been in her usual health, tho earlier in the day she had complained of a slight headache. Her brother has been in Athens doing the plumbing in a school building for C. C. Schureman. His wife had been staying with Mrs. Briggs at her home, 410 South Clay avenue.

Saturday evening they went up town to do some shopping. Returning they stopped at Mrs. Harvey's home, 115 East College street. Mrs. Briggs was seized with a hemorrhage and died within a few minutes afterward. Her husband, who is employed at the Journal, was notified by telephone, but arrived after her death. Dr. Haigrove also was summoned. Tho he reached her before death came he was unable to give any relief.

Eunice Harvey Briggs was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Harvey of 313 East College street and was born in this city, July 6, 1896. She attended the parochial schools here and graduated from St. Joseph's academy in Hannibal, Mo. Later she took a business course at Routt college.

The deceased was united in marriage January 17, 1916 to Ralph R. Briggs, who survives, together with one daughter, Catherine. She also leaves her parents, and one brother, Leslie W. Harvey of this city.

Mrs. Briggs was a young woman, who because of her devotion to her home and friends had won a particularly high place in the estimation of those who knew her. Her every thought was for the comfort of those nearest her and her sudden going comes indeed as a very great blow to both the members of her family and her many friends. It was recalled Saturday night that at the supper hour, Mrs. Briggs had seemed to feel especially well and happy and had joyously planned for some expected events of the coming week. So indeed, her death, coming in the midst of joyousness and youth, seems especially hard to understand.

Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been completed.

ASBURY CHURCH.
